b. There were no transports after 26 October. The camp area was empty except for about 20 men who will remain there all winter. The Volkspolizei are allegedly taking care of billets. Construction of a road from NEUCHTER STEYT to KINDL (H96) does not seem to have taken place although broad permanent roads have been laid down inside the camp area.

2. JENA AREA (J66), [REDACTED]

All barracks in Jena proper are fully occupied. On 31 October, units were busy setting up quarters and cleaning weapons and vehicles. No outdoor training was seen.

3. JENA-LOENSTEDT (J76).

a. Artillerie Kaserne - 2,100-2,200 men who, judging from their weapons, may compose one armored regiment of 1,200-1,400 men and an artillery unit of about 900. Eighteen T-34/B5 tanks were parked in front of one shed, five 122 mm howitzers before another, while a third was said to contain artillery pieces.
